IS COLD WEATHER THE BEST DEFENCE FOR SOCIAL DISEASE? SIX FEET APART!

Steep transmission decline in transmission as cold weather sets. Spending at grocery stores has continued the same, weather regardless. Why do schools, retirement homes and gatherings transmit the most disease?

ARE PRIONS ... IONS?

Understand How Prions Spread Infectious Brain Disease
It turns out, copper ions might be part of the problem. Ions are the little ball where light begins a line and ends a line. Wearing a nose shield prevents your head from becoming ionized. Similar to magnetism, ionization attracts dirt and debris. Cover your nose, flush with water, and eat good.

The Idling Control By-law limits idling to no more than one (1) minute in a 60-minute period. Vehicle emissions are a contributing factor in climate change. By reducing unnecessary idling to just one minute, we are helping to improve the quality of the air in Toronto. It's one simple way that we can all help to keep our air clean.

Whales and dolphins exhibit a wide range of fascinating behaviours, from hunting, spy-hopping and tail slapping, to surfing waves and using tools. Whale and dolphin brains are big. Sperm whales have the largest brain on the planet, weighing around 7.8kg, whereas the average adult human brain weighs around 1,300g. You might even believe the French, who call them ballerina, balenidæ.

OCTO LIBR

Commentari in Aristotelis 8 libros Physicorum Salisburgi traditi.

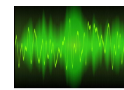

You can judge a book by it's cover, and you can find translation and editors symbols too! COMMENT and TARY are on two separate lines. The original transcriber was probably translating stone works on tablet, and was unsure how to join spaces. Thus we find the word "COMMENT". A very famous and accepted word that permeates the English language and is found in etymological guides. This word comment translates to "КАМЕНТАРЫЯ" in Belarusa using translation tools. Adding spaces, "COM MENT" produces the word, "COM MENT" in Belarusa. Clearly we have spaced the word incorrectly. Adding two spaces however, "COM M ENT" produces the word, "KOM M ЛOP". Somewhere in the ancient past this book from 1601 century found important texts that influenced the world ever since. Perhaps this is where the word October originally is inspired from.
